- * Standard Summer Courses
- * Specialist Courses all year round
- * Minimum 2 weeks – 23 hours per week

The Devon School of English has been offering courses for teachers since 1974. Our permanent staff are all highly-qualified teachers versed in the latest methods of teacher training. In addition, the Hawthorne family who manage the School, are all teachers themselves. Add to this, our extensive resources and superb facilities and you have a probably unique combination. We can draw on a depth of knowledge, wealth of invention and hands-on experience which would be hard to match elsewhere.

Summer Courses. Open to all teachers. The content of these courses is determined by the needs of the participants but there are two basic programmes:

Advanced Language courses for post CAE teachers who feel they already have a thorough grasp of EFL methodology. The courses combine a project-based component with sessions designed to improve the participants' mastery of English.

Brush up your teaching skills

Courses aiming to provide a sound methodological base together with practical teaching techniques for teachers who would like to improve their performance in the classroom. Suitable for inexperienced teachers or those whose training took place some time ago and wish to update their skills.

"I really enjoyed the course this summer. Everything worked out incredibly well and the Devon School became a special place to me. I'm thinking about coming back next summer."

Miyuki Sakurai, Japan

Specialist Courses. Here are some examples of the many types of course we have run:

Swiss Teachers' Courses - a collaboration dating back more than 25 years – project-based update courses organised through the Swiss Government.

Chinese Teachers' Courses - advanced language and modern teaching methodology courses for primary and secondary school teachers promoted by the Chinese Education Authorities.

"I found the course extremely useful and was able to use many of the ideas that were suggested to me when I got back to my primary school in Italy."

Cinzia Mencarelli, Italy

Literature Courses - dealing with the use of a variety of modern literary materials in new and stimulating ways in the classroom.

Primary and Secondary School Courses

- the latest methodology with practical suggestions and tips for more exciting lessons for young learners. Also teaching other subjects through the medium of English.

Business Teachers' Courses - new ideas and new ways of teaching Business English with trainers with authentic business experience.
